will go to the coast about July 1st for rebuilding and will remain in San Francisco about two months. The intention is to make the Claudine practically a duplicate of the Kinau which closely resembled the Claudine before Claudine which is now in two separate sections will be built so as to cover the whole length from the pilot house to the stern. This will give much additional cabin room and also provide another deck, flush with the bridge. These alterations are necessary on account of the increase of traffic on the Maui coast she will have new boilers put in and her machinery will be overhauled so that she will be practically a new boat when she returns. This trip of HENRY WATERHOUSE the Claudine to San Francisco recalls that other historic trip she made with the Annexation Commission.

MANCHURIA OFF PORT.

The Pacific Mail liner Manchuria was miles west at 12:05 a, m. She will be in early in the morning. She has over a thousand tons of freight for this port so that the stevedores will have to work to get her out again tonight. Hackfeld & Co. stated last night that they would make the attempt as the liner is already late. There are accommodations for about 70 cabin passengers from this port to San Francisco and over twice as many are Manchuria, Am, S. S., Saunders, Yobooked.
